Lowry Business Alliance Membership Agreement

This agreement defines the privileges and responsibilities between the Lowry Business Alliance, a Colorado non-profit organization, and Applicant named below ("Applicant").

With acceptance of an application for membership and for as long as dues are paid to and accepted by the LBA board, an Applicant will be known as an Active Member of LBA ("Member"). For the duration of the membership agreement, GSBA and Member agree to the following terms:

Active Member

1. Member will pay dues as specified in a separate dues schedule for as long as it desires to remain a Member.
2. Members may enjoy the membership benefits provided by LBA.
3. Member has a limited sub-license from LBA to use the LBA logo to promote itself as a "LBA Member" in advertising, website, and other materials, subject to the following conditions:
 1. Logo may not be altered or combined with any other logo, image or text that changes the logo's meaning or integrity.
 2. Logo may only be used to advertise Member's LBA membership; it may not be used to brand products or services.
 3. The LBA Board will decide any issues regarding appropriate use of the LBA name or trademark.
 4. Member grants LBA the right to display its name and logo as a Member business. Member will cease using logo and LBA affiliation if and when it ceases to be a Member.

Lowry Business Alliance

1. LBA will provide membership benefits on a best efforts basis.
2. LBA will on a best efforts basis continue to offer membership to qualified businesses, foster relationships between Member businesses, and conduct the organization as a going concern.
3. LBA will not share Member contact information with other parties for solicitation purposes.

Mutual

Neither party has a legal relationship with the other, or claims, privileges or obligations beyond those described in this agreement. Neither party may use the others' name or logo to imply a legal relationship with, or endorsement of, the other party or of other Members.

You acknowledge and accept these terms by submitting this membership application.
